

JUNE 16-21, 2017

WEST COAST TALENT ID CAMP

The mission of USA Cycling's Regional Talent ID Camps is to Provide USA Cycling with Jr. Talent Evaluations while Offering Athletes a Pathway to Develop Their Cycling Ability.

The primary goal of the Talent ID Camps is to recognize athletes who, at an early age, show signs of potential future success in cycling. Receiving instruction from some of USA Cycling's finest coaches, the camps also provide the necessary framework to improve the athlete's skillset, thus progressing their cycling development.

The 2017 West Coast camp will be held at Cal Lutheran Univ. in Thousand Oaks, CA and will feature modern campus living and the fantastic riding in sunny Southern California. The camp will also select four qualified 17-18 year old riders to compete at the Junior Tour of Ireland later this Summer. Contact the camp manager with questions!

Open for all racers
race age 14-19

Jr. Tour of Ireland team selector!
(July 2017)

Skills, field tests, lessons, fun!

Presented by experienced and licensed USAC coaches!

CONTACT:

Coach Kevin Dessart
kdessart@usacycling.org

719-434-4224

www.usacycling.org/events

$750 for early registration