Cost of the class is covered by the SCNCA. You will have to purchase your official's license, which is $25.00.

1.   Please reserve a seat in the class. I need to know the number of attendees so that I can have enough handouts and exams for everyone. We have room for 20 people in the class.

       Contact me at: marilynallen.ranchita@gmail.com.

2.   Once you send me your name, I will send you a video with presentation file handouts that you need to download and review prior to the class. This contains valuable information on what is involved with being an official and what a new official can be expected to know and learn. These presentation files include:

              Part 1 - Introduction/Quality of Good Officials
              Part 2 - Organization of Cycling
              Part 3 - The Rules
              Part 4 - Track Racing
              Part 5 - Road Racing
              Part 6 - Cyclo-cross
              Part 7 - Mountain Bike Racing
              Part 8 - Developing Officiating Skills
              Part 9 - Administering a Race
              Part 10 - Officiating Resources

3.   Review the USA Cycling Rule Book here. The Rule Book covers all the rules and regulations across all disciplines (Track, Road, Cyclo-cross, Mountain Biking, etc.) along with general regulations, discipline, and more.

4.   You will have to take the SafeSport Training and you can do this before the class or after. If you want to speed up the process, then it can be done before the class.

       The final steps to becoming a licensed official will be the completion of the USOC's SafeSport course (which may be found in the Officials Clinics area), and a background check, which may be completed here.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me. Look forward to seeing you in January.
